La Vida Corsets at $2 to $5

Here is an opportunity for the woman going away or staying in town for the summer to choose smartly designed Layada Corsets of superior fabrics. These values are decidedly unusual.

- A Front-Laced Style-at the left-is made of fine material, with an elastic insert at the bottom of the back. It is designed for the average figure and has the fashionable slight nip at
- Latitude. Corset designed for the medium figure is sketched at the right, firmly boned over the abdomen and back, with free space over the hips. This is a low bust style and may be chosen in pink or white

Watch for Our Announcement Sale of Lingerie Sample Garments

itary or attractive can be made. It is 78 inches long, has two drains and is constructed all in one-piece, without a crack, joint or dirt catching crevice. Its glistening, unbroken, white enameled surface gives it an irresistible appeal. The adjustable legs allow it to be set from 30 to 36 inches from floor. SEE IT IN OUR SHOWROOM

SOUTHERN BLDG., 15th and H STS., N. W. SECOND FLOOR

Standard Sanitary Mg. Co.

Experienced · Advertisers Prefer · The Star.

ing the lower part of the round bodice A poke-shape bonnet in a picturesque shade of green and long gold filigree

Mrs. Thomson, daughter of the Speaker and Mrs. Champ Clark, looks very earrings finish the picture.

Gowns and Their Wearers.

Not only the women who marched in Preparedness parade, but those who occupied

The Popularity of the seats in the Presidential All-White Costume. reviewing stand last Wednesday, including ...irs. Wilson, the President's wife, favored the all-white costume as the proper thing for the occasion. Mrs. Wilmn who has a strong leantoward the neutral shades in dress, favoring the all-black or the allwhite costume, with a variation now then in the selection of pastel shades of gray, blue and mauve, looked most attractive the other day in her dainty gown of white embroidered net, the sleeves and fronts of the surplice bodice being ornamented with a sketchy. running pattern of white silk embroidery.

running pattern of white silk embroidery.

The medici collar, which is almost invariably a part of Mrs. Wilson's gowns, was not lacking to the airy gown she wore Wednesday, making a becoming background for her face, full of animation, and lighted up by smiles of appreciation as band after band playing patriotic and in many instances southern tunes, passed the reviewing stand.

viewing stand.

Her hat was a rather large white sailor, trimmed about the low crown with white tulle and heads of wheat. Miss Wilson, who sat on the other side of her father, the President, was also in white a summery frock of batiste or net, topped by a white sailor hat wreathed with white flowers.

Mrs. Lansing, wife of the Secretary of State, chose white for her gown and hat also, the simple summer gown with big white sailor with its white flower trimming appealing to her and most of the other ladies on the stand, as the proper thing for the occasion.

A variation in the all-white color scheme of most of the women's gowns Pink Forms a Note ing stand was that of Mrs. Crozier, wife of Gen. Crozier, who wore a pink georgette crepe with white leghorn hat turned up at one side in a picturesque fashion and wreathed with large pink

Among the white gowns worn by the women who paraded that of Mrs. Murray Cobb is perhaps an example of the last word in simplicity and fitness, her plain tailored white cloth skirt, smart on account of its perfect cut and fit, with box-pleated batiste blouse with embroidered sailor collar, topped by a cream colored leghorn hat, the rolling brim turned slightly downward over the face and the crown banded by a heavy white gros-grained ribbon with cocade of the same toward the side in front. making an outfit appropriate for any informal summer event, in town

A party of friends who, after the parade, lunched with Mrs. Cobb at the Shoreham were similarly dressed.

earrings finish the picture.

Mrs. Richard Harlow wears a striking gown of white chiffon or crepe combined with fine black-striped crepe, the the lower part of the skirt being of the striped material, which is gathered on to a hip yoke of white crepe.

The bodice is also of the plain white with square collar of the striped fabric, the trimming to sleeves and front of bodice also repeating the black and white motif.

The hat worn with it is a white panama wound about with a pink liberty scarf. That the all-white hat is to be met at every turn of the road and bend of the street The White Hat Like the through-

Poor-Always With Us. out the on summer is a foregone conclusion for there were thousands of them work in the parade, all apparently alike, a white straw model wreathed with

of course, they were chosen as a uniform model in the grand march, but whoever selected the model was a wise woman for the hat is especially appropriate as an article of dress for the woman, who remains in town for all or most of the summer.

Nowhere, perhaps, except possibly in other southern cities, is an all-white marrow pleatings of fine black lace, with three-quarter sleeves, a medici collar and beruffied skirt, while the hat worn with it was a watteau shape of black straw turned up in the back and trimmed with tulle.

Representative and Miss Cannon occupied last winter the house built and formerly occupied by Mrs. Stirling and her mother, 1745 N street, which was sold to Mr. and Mrs. John E. Reyburn when Miss Robeson, as she then was, was married and moved to London, a home notable for its entertainments.

Mrs. Stirling, called to this country by the death of an aunt, is stopping at the Shoreham.

Another effective black net gown is worn by Mrs. Nash, wife of Medical Direct to Mrs. Nash, wife of Medical Direct to Mrs. Nash Also Wears At.

N. made

Mrs. Nash Also Wears At- Nash, U.S. tractive Black Net Gown. W i t h stripes of black lace insertion and trimmed with black lace edging, a feavelvet ribbon over the shoulders, like straps. The hat worn with it is of black mrs. Peyton Russell wears an effective gown of black silk figured with white diamonds, the flounced skirt being bound with black ribbon, as are the edges of the sleeveless bodice. A square collar failing half way down the back finishes the neck, over which is another collar of cream embroidered batiste. Mrs. Russel's hat is a small black shape trimmed with gourra.

Mrs. Calderon Carlisle was driving the other day in a becoming gown of blacks and-white striped silk, made with a Spanish flounce and surplice bodice, a feature of which is the new fichu-like collar, edged with a double frill extending down the front. Her hat, a toque, was trimmed with white roses and a cluster of galax leaves, put on on one side like a gourra faney.

Mrs. John B. Henderson has a very becoming costume, consisting of an ecru batiste.

Pink Roses—With Gown elaborately and beautifored in self-tones, made with the regulation full skirt and simple surplice bodice, the embroidery on the front of the bride-groom is well known. After a wedding trip to Atlantic City, Mr. Pollock will take his bride to their new home in Boyds.

Among the out-of-town guests were mrs. C. L. Pollock, mother of the bridegroom is well known. After a wedding trip to Atlantic City, Mr. Pollock will take his bride to their new home in Boyds.

Among the out-of-town guests were mrs. C. L. Pollock, mother of the bridegroom is well known. After a wedding trip to Atlantic City, Mr. Pollock will take his bride to their new home in Boyds.

Among the out-of-town guests were mrs. C. L. Pollock, mother of the bridegroom is well known. After a wedding trip to Atlantic City, Mr. Pollock will take his bride to their new home in Boyds.

Among the out-of-town guests were mrs. C. L. Pollock, mother of the bridegroom is well known. After a wedding trip to Atlantic City, Mr. Pollock will take his bride to their new home in Boyds.

Among the out-of-town guests were mrs. C. L. Pollock, mother of the bridegroom is well known. After a wedding trip to Atlantic City, Mr. Pollock will take hi Mrs. Peyton Russell wears an effec

MARRIED THURSDAY AFTERNOON.

MRS. THOMAS PHILIP BONES. rmerly Mrs. Eloise Cisse

Bones-Harden.

One of the most beautiful of the early summer weddings took place Thurs well in a smart day afternoon at 50'clock in the Presi-Old Rose Cleverly little suit of dark blue serge, Eloise Cissel Harden, daughter of Mrs.

Offsets Blue Suit. tailor - made, of S. Sewall Cissel, became the bride of

Of course, they were chosen as a uniform model in the grand march, but whoever selected the model was a wise woman for the hat is especially appropriate as an article of dress for the woman, who remains in town for all or most of the summer.

Nowhere, perhaps, except possibly in other southern cities, is an all-white costume more fitting than here in the summer, who remains in town for all or most of the summer.

Nowhere, perhaps, except possibly in other southern cities, is an all-white costume more fitting than here in the summer, who remains in the cost in some of crimson and rose. The collar of the coat is also embedding to the color of the coat is also embe

Gossip of Society.

Mr. and Mrs. Champ Clark have re ived the fad for souvenir spoons. The Clarks Start Fad House of Repre for Silver Spoons. sentatives has uch spoons made, peculiarly individual sentation of himself in a frock coat.

he stripes running around the arms. Her hat was a wide-brimmed, tall-crowned black rough straw, trimmed with a wide black moire ribbon tied in a flaring bow at one side.

Pollock—Mackintosh.

A pretty wedding took place last night when Miss Grace Amelia Mackintosh became the bride of Mr. John Emory Pollock of Boyds, Md., at the residence of the bride's mother on Park road.

Only a small company of relatives witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. O. A. Gillingham, also of Boyds, Misc Charlotte Gibson played

Mr. John Barrett has had a beautifu grass tennis court built in the Pan-American Union

A Lovely Grass grounds, which Tennis Court. cluded recreation probably the most se ground in Washington. It lies to the left of the house at the rear of the Pan-American Union building, and near the garage, and all around it have been planted tall shrubs, poplars, and other screen greens.

Mere some of the Latin American dip-lomats enjoy themselves from time to time, as does Mr. Barrett and relatives and other friends who come down to the building after office hours. It is a beautiful little nook, whose ex-istence no one except a chance inquisi-tive stroller would ever suspect.

Returning Tomorrow.

Mr. John Barrett will return to

Army Notes.

Army Notes.

Gen. T. M. Anderson, U. S. A., accompanied by his family, is established at his summer home, Soldiers' Retreat, or the Columbia.

Mrs. Theodore Mosher, widow of Col. Mosher, U. S. A.; has closed her apartment at Stoneleigh Court and gone to Fort Logan, Col., where she will spend the summer with her brother-ing steer. Col. and Mrs. Robert I. Settly, has returned to the Misses Forter, widow and daughters of Col. Mosher of the graduatine of the Misses Forter, widow and daughters of Col. Mosher of the graduatine to the Misses Forter, widow and daughters of Col. Mosher of the graduatine to the Misses Forter, widow and daughters of Col. Date of the medical research work which is the chief of the trip. Mrs. William W. Carter, wife of Land Mrs. Robert M. Gettly, has returned to Mrs. Carter, wife of Land Mrs. Robert Mrs. Col. Stephen M. Foote, U. S. A. as companied by Mrs. and Mrs. As a companied by Mrs. and Mrs. Honey C. Col. Stephen M. Foote, U. S. A. as companied by Mrs. and Mrs. Honey C. Corbin, widow of Gen. Col. Stephen M. Foote, U. S. A. as companied by Mrs. and Mrs. Honey C. Corbin, widow of Gen. Mrs. L. C. Stephen M. Foote, U. S. A. as companied by Mrs. and Mrs. Honey C. Corbin, widow of Gen. Col. Stephen M. Foote, U. S. A. as companied by Mrs. and Mrs. Honey C. Corbin, widow of Gen. Mrs. L. C. Corbin, widow of Gen. Mrs. L. C. Broth Mrs. Mrs. London Mrs. L. S. A. has returned to the Connecticut after a visit to Mrs. Frederick Kohl at Burlingame, Cal. and Mrs. William P. Garden Mrs. As a companied by Mrs. and Mrs. Honey C. Corbin, widow of Gen. Mrs. As a companied by Mrs. and Mrs. Honey C. Corbin, widow of Gen. Mrs. As a companied by Mrs. and Mrs. Honey C. Corbin, widow of Gen. Mrs. As a companied by Mrs. and Mrs. Honey C. Corbin, widow of Gen. Mrs. As a companied by Mrs. As a companied by Mrs. As a compan ovising, on Powell avenue.

Capt. Duncan Elliott, U. S. A., is convalescing after his recent illness at the Palisades of the Potomac, where he is he guest at their Virginia residence of fir, and Mrs. Joseph Leiter.

Col. and Mrs. John R. Williams are to visit her aunt, Mrs. Richard weightman, at the cottage at Jamestown, R. I., and the guests included Mrs. C. A. to man, at her cottage at Jamestown, R. I., and the guests included Mrs. C. A. doing after his recent illness at the parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry T. Howard. at Gloucester. Mass., where they have visited anually for a part of the warm season.

M. Brooksalo. The Women's Store

Special June Sale of Navy Blue Silk and Cloth Suits

Involving Many New Summer Models at a Price Which Compels Your Interest

Values Up to $40

You Are Always Sure of "Something New" in the Suit Store of Washington

ANY styles—just unpacked—each one seeming prettier than the other! (One of the styles is here illustrated.) Not only a very comprehensive collection of Navy Blue Serge and Cloth Suits, but a very extensive gathering of Navy Blue Taffeta Silk Suits. It will repay your effort to be here early Monday to make your selection.

-Largest and Finest Showing of Waists-

Dozens of smart Waists in washable silk, extra heavy satin with extra large stripes. Regular $5 quality.....

Twenty-five dozen Extra Heavy Crepe de Chine and Georgette Crepe Waists, in flesh, maize, white, peach, etc. Full frills. Twelve models to select from Advance Announcement!

CORSETS AT NEW PRICES

On and After Saturday, July 1st, 1916

The retail price of certain Nemo Corsets heretofore sold at $3.00 $ 250 WILL BE ADVANCED TO

This Includes the Following Numbers:

SELF-REDUCING-Nos. 310, 315, 316, 318, 319, 321, 322, 324, 326, 344 and 345 KOPSERVICE—Nos. 305, 307 MATERNITY—No. 300

This slight advance, which has been compelled by the greatly increased cost of all kinds of corset-materials, represents only a small part of the higher cost of manufacturing.

We are forced to raise prices or sacrifice quality, and NEMO QUALITY WILL NEVER BE LOWERED

The same cause may compel an advance in the retail prices of other Nemo models in the near future. KOPS BROS., Manufacturers of NEMO CORSETS. New York